

Eastpointe Community CU

From the desk of
Theresa M. Hing, CEO

Dear Members,

I hope everyone was able to get outside and enjoy their summer. Fall and football is my personal favorite time of year. Hopefully the Lions will step their game up.

It is nice to see most of the schools are open and the students are back in the classroom. There is a shortage of teachers, and our Eastpointe Community Schools are looking to hire more staff.

Our credit union has also had some staff changes. Emily and Makayla have resigned to pursue new opportunities. We wish them the best of luck in their future endeavors.

Congratulations to Kelly as she has been promoted to MSR Manager and oversees the teller area. She has been with our credit union for over 3 years now. We also hired a new Member Service Representative, Beth. Please stop in and say hello.

The credit union is offering great rates on mortgages through Mortgage Center. Please call 248-265-3815 for more details.

Enjoy this beautiful autumn weather.
Go Lions...

Meet: Beth Youngblood

Beth is the newest face you may see on occasion when visiting the credit union. Beth has lived in the city of Eastpointe for several years. Beth and her husband Steve have 3 kids, Kyle, Ryan, and Sarah, along with 2 beagles and 2 cats. Prior to working here, Beth worked in a doctor's office as a records clerk for 16 years.

Beth enjoys spending her free time walking her dogs, reading, watching local sports games and hanging out with her kids and new in-laws.

We are very excited to welcome Beth to our credit union family, and she is excited to learn new things and meet all of you!
